

Mentoring Information and Consent

Confidentiality Commitment

All information disclosed to your life mentor will be kept in strict confidence. However, persons receiving mentoring can expect confidentiality modified in the following situations:

When the personal safety of the person receiving mentoring or another person is an issue.

When any form of child abuse (physical or sexual) or child neglect is disclosed to or suspected by your mentor.

When and if disclosure is required by a court of law.

Consultation Consent

I do hereby give my consent for my mentor to consult with other mentors, a Pastor, Medical Doctor, Psychiatrist, Social Worker, or other professional person, that my mentor may deem appropriate to consult with, in order to assist in the assessment of my mentoring concerns, for the purpose of providing the best possible help, in making recommendations, formulating treatment strategies, or in considering an appropriate referral.

Prayer Ministry

I do I do not give my consent that my mentoring concerns be made a matter of prayer among other mentors, AELM professionals, HOJ staff, and pastors.

I would like for my concerns to be associated with my initials only.

By my signature, I affirm that I have read and do understand the above statements.

Ministry Mission

Life Ministries exists to share God's truth about our identity in Christ that others may live life to the fullest (John 10:10).

Philosophy

Jesus said, "...you shall know the truth and the truth will set you free." (John 8:32) Life Mentors believe that the Bible is true and sufficient for addressing all of life's problems that are not organic in nature, and that reliance on the Holy Spirit for the healing process is essential. Therefore, Life Mentors use the Bible as their primary tool in bringing a person's concerns to resolution while relying on the Holy Spirit for the results.

Training

Life Mentors have been Biblically trained in the Association of Exchanged Life counseling classes through Grace Family Ministries of South Georgia and/or Life Classes through Life Ministries of Valdosta, GA. Please feel free to inquire about the training and background of your mentor. Life Ministries' Life Mentors are not psychologists, psychiatrists, or licensed therapists.

Financial Policy

Life Mentors depend on your donations to further the ministry they are committed to providing. Our suggested donation per 50 minutes is $40.00. If a person receiving mentoring is unable to contribute $40.00, then they should discuss applying for a whole or partial scholarship with their mentor depending on what they can contribute. It is noted that no one will be refused mentoring for financial reasons. We only ask that when God does bless you financially, you remember this ministry. Donations are tax deductible and will be used to further ministry.

Materials Policy

Books, tapes, CDs, etc... will be recommended by the mentor to the person being mentored as deemed relevant. If the person is not able to purchase these materials recommended, then they may be able to borrow materials from the Life LIfters library. When borrowing materials the person being mentored agrees to return all items by the date given by the LIFE Mentor. By not returning the materials on the prescribed date, the person consents to purchase the loaned materials, and expects to be billed by Life Ministries for the materials.

Appointments and Child Care

If the person being mentored has to reschedule an appointment, they should do so at least 24 hours in advance so that the Mentor may reschedule their time and give others an opportunity to fill the vacated time slot. Should no one be available to speak with you personally, please leave a message on your Mentor's voice mail to reschedule your appointment. If the person being mentored does not give 24 hour notice three times or more, the Mentor may choose to discontinue mentoring.

Child Care is the responsibility of the parent or guardian. Child Care is not provided by Life Ministries.

I have read and understand the above statements.
